

UNIT 2 TEST: STUDY GUIDE:

Use your foldable notes, composition notes, the Declaration Notes handout from class, and any other resources to answer these questions.

- Which lasting document was the first to limit the power of monarchs and was used by the colonists' has an example of what government in America should be based on?
- Which was the first written government in the American colonies?
- Which document was published anonymously advocating that the colonists declare their independence from the British crown?
- When were the rights of Englishmen established?
- In the Magna Carta, the idea of limited government requires for the king to become subject to which concept?
- Why did the American colonists have the rights of Englishmen?
- What is the definition of a trial by jury?
- Which founding document was written in 1620 and outlined the first written constitution in America?
- Which significant American political document was signed July 4, 1776?
- Which British Law required certain Colonists to allow British troops to live in their homes?
- The Townshend Revenue Act allowed British officials to take which actions towards the colonists?
- In The Declaration of Independence "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" are called "unalienable". What is the definition of unalienable?
- What was one immediate effect of the passage of The Stamp Act?
- What kinds of actions did the Colonists force stamp-officers to do?
- Why did the Townshend Revenue Act focus on items such as paint, glass, paper and lead?
- How would you best characterize the colonists prior to and during the Boston Massacre?
- How would you best characterize the soldiers in the Boston Massacre?
- What would be one colonial advantage to referring to this event as "The Bloody Massacre"?
- What was the colonial reaction to the Boston Tea Party?